

Building Better Lives Together

2024 ANNUAL REPORT

A Word From Our CEO & BOARD CHAIR

The year 2025 marks our 70th Anniversary – we have come a long way during our rich history starting as the Linn Government Employees Credit Union in 1955 to our charter and name change in 1957 to the Federal-Metals Credit Union and now as Central Willamette Credit Union. In 2024, we marked another year of exciting growth and innovation for Central Willamette Credit Union (CWCU).

As we look back on 70 years – we have successfully navigated balancing opportunities along with the various external challenges that we face from time to time. All along our path there have been our resolute employees who have always sought to keep you as a member, in the forefront of all we do.

In 2024, we achieved significant milestones, deepened community relationships, and expanded our services to better meet your evolving financial needs. Here are just a few:

Stronger Together: LANECO FCU Merges into CWCU

We proudly welcomed members of LANECO Federal Credit Union into our CWCU family through a successful merger. This partnership strengthens our collective commitment to providing exceptional financial services and greater community impact. It also provides CWCU with access to an important and growing market area in Lane County. If you are in the area, please stop by and say “hello” to your Eugene branch team!

Branching Out: New Bend Location

We expanded our presence with the opening of our newest branch in the vibrant community of Bend, Oregon. This new location allows us to serve more members, offering greater convenience and accessibility in Central Oregon.

Innovation Meets Accessibility: Video Banking

In response to member feedback and changing needs, we launched our Member Video Banking service. Now, you can experience personalized, face-to-face financial support wherever you are, making banking easier and more accessible than ever.

Leading the Way: Cannabis Banking Services

Understanding the unique needs of Oregon’s cannabis businesses, CWCU launched specialized Cannabis Banking Services. In 2024 we acquired several new cannabis-based business members and expect that number to grow into the future. We are committed to supporting local businesses with compliant, secure, and efficient financial solutions.

CWCU helped to administrate SHA's federally funded grant program that is designed to provide funding assistance for eligible residents seeking housing in the city of Salem.

Gold Standard in Wealth Management

Our Wealth Management Team received prestigious recognition from the "Best of Willamette Valley" annual recognition program, winning Gold for "Best Wealth Management Service" in the region. This honor reflects our unwavering commitment to providing exceptional financial guidance tailored to your goals.

Continued Financial Strength

In 2024, CWCU experienced financial growth as we ended the year approaching a milestone of $600 million in total assets, demonstrating the trust and confidence you continue to place in us.

Community Investment & Outreach

CWCU remains as fully invested into the communities we serve now as we have for the last 70 years. To further our commitment to invest in growing our community-based partnerships, we have formed a Community Engagement team. This team is dedicated to expanding our community support, financial education & wellness, as well as CU advocacy in our markets.

Here are some additional highlights of our community outreach in 2024:

- Launched a new financial education and wellness platform providing a wide range of financial education topics that are available in both Spanish and English and easily accessible on our website.
- Your CWCU team volunteer hours exceeded 2,500 for 2024 – including nearly 740 hours of volunteer time served during our "Day of Giving" event in October.
- We provided funding for three Latinx college scholarships in partnership with Altrusa of Corvallis. This is our fifth year partnering with Altrusa on these college scholarships.
- CWCU was the Premier sponsor of the annual NW Art & Air Festival which attracts thousands of people each year.
- In all, we invested over $120,000 into community-based partnerships. We support organizations that work to improve our communities, and we appreciate their service to all.

Thank you again for your loyalty and membership with CWCU. Our board of directors and our team members look forward to serving you in 2025 and beyond.

Sincerely,

Report Of The

CWCU SUPERVISORY COMMITTEE

The Supervisory Committee is pleased to report the successful completion of the independent audit of Central Willamette Credit Union's financial statements and member account verification for the year ending December 31, 2024. Conducted by the certified public accounting firm Opsahl Dawson & Company, LLP, this audit affirmed the accuracy and integrity of our financial reporting in full compliance with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP).

In addition to financial oversight, we engaged an independent firm to perform a comprehensive Information Technology & Security Audit in 2024. This assessment evaluated the strength and resilience of our IT infrastructure, security protocols, and data protection measures. We are proud to share that Central Willamette's cybersecurity and technology programs received top-tier ratings, demonstrating our ongoing commitment to safeguarding member information and maintaining operational excellence.

Regulatory oversight remains a cornerstone of our commitment to transparency and accountability. Central Willamette is routinely examined by state and federal regulators, including the Oregon Division of Finance and Corporate Securities and the National Credit Union Administration (NCUA). These examinations provide a thorough review of our financial health, operational effectiveness, risk management practices, and regulatory compliance.

The Supervisory Committee continues to exercise diligent oversight through a combination of internal and external audits, ensuring that all activities align with federal and state regulations and the internal control framework established by our Board of Directors and Management. Based on these independent evaluations, the Committee affirms that Central Willamette Credit Union is financially sound, well-managed, and positioned to serve our members with security and stability for years to come.

Respectfully Submitted,

David Dahlin,
CHAIR
